

Bollywood style wedding with 800 guests in Venice

Perhaps the marriage of William and Kate is likely to be overshadowed by what will take place in a few days in Venice: 72 hours of celebrations in Bollywood style for the event that the most majestic lagoon memories. Marriage is between two Indians, the daughter of the king of iron, the Indian Pramod Agarwal, and her boyfriend. Vinita Muquit and you will swear undying love in the most romantic of Italian cities, and three days of million-dollar wedding party with 800 guests. A lot of the parties organized to celebrate the wedding: the first will be the 12 with party Welcome to the Scuola Grande della Misericordia.

Guests will dance with a submarine on their heads to the music of Gothan Project. Not one but many catering for this marriage that will go down in history. One of those choices and the restaurant Grille, you will have to try a vegetarian menu.

It for the second party has instead been booked Arsenal where for the newlyweds and guests will sing Shakira. 13, however, there the special ceremony at the San Clemente: This is the Mendhi, the ceremony of henna for women attending the wedding.

The highlight of the day instead of 14 arrives: the San Clemente where the couple are said to be Bollywood is in style, with the inevitable fireworks and choreographed headed by Franco Dragone, the former artistic director of Cirque du Soleil.