

Photographs of the Spectacular Shaadi in Venice

Seven years after they hosted their eldest daughter Anjani's magnificent destination wedding in Udaipur, London based billionaires Bina and Pramod Agarwal hosted their second daughter Vineeta's wedding in Venice. With celebrations at the most exotic locales, awe-inspiring decor by Sumant Jayakrishnan and acts by international sensations like Shakira, the three day celebration with over 800 guests was referred to as one of the grandest Indian weddings.

Vineeta and Muqit Teja with her parents (right) and Muqit's mother (left)

The setting for the grand Mehendi and Sangeet

Here are the photographs of the welcome dinner, orange and pink theme mehendi and the Shakira night. The wedding was filmed and photographed by Delhi-based brothers Raja and Badal Jain, and the talented duo spoke to WeddingSutra just after their return from Venice: "We've been to the grandest destination weddings around the world, but this wedding in Venice was really special".

The Welcome party was held on 12th May at the Scuola Grande Della Misericordia

Singing sensation Shakira performs on Day 2

While India's wedding industry was most curious to know more about the Big Fat Indian Wedding, two days before the weekend wedding, our traffic soared to an all-time high (popular search terms Pramod Agarwal and Indian wedding in Venice). And what do you guess is the news headline of The Times of India? The Indian Wedding got just bigger' pegging the cost of this wedding @ 10 million Euros.

Left, the Bride and Groom just before the musical performance by Shakira. Right, Steel King Lakshmi Mittal, a close friend of the Agarwals attended all the celebrations.

Photographs courtesy: www.badalraja.com